Our Water Activities

Stand Up Paddling

Enjoy exploring Kumarakom's backwaters and Vembanad lake with a Stand Up Paddle Board (SUP). A super fun way to explore the waterways! If you have never used a SUP before, our experienced instructor will help you paddle around the lagoon until you're ready to venture out onto the river.

A photograph showing two people in a wooden canoe on a narrow canal. The person in the front is a woman with long dark hair, wearing a red life vest and a patterned top, using a long wooden paddle. The person in the back is a man with grey hair, wearing a red and white checkered shirt, a red life vest, and light-colored shorts, also using a paddle. The canal is surrounded by lush greenery and trees. In the background, there is a small stone bridge and a traditional building with a thatched roof. The water is calm and reflects the surrounding greenery.

Canoeing

Explore the multiple canals that web across Kumarakom's waterscape, including the ones in Coconut Lagoon, to get an intimate glimpse of life on the backwaters.

The person in the front is a woman with dark hair, wearing an orange life vest and a black top, using a double-bladed paddle. The person in the back is a man with dark hair, wearing a red life vest and a black shirt, also using a double-bladed paddle. The water is dark and calm, with some green vegetation visible in the distance. The sky is overcast.

Kayaking

Take a kayak for an easy and fun way to enjoy the Kavanar River or the Vembanad lake. Multiple kayak options and time durations are offered, ensuring there's something for everyone.
