Mollem, South Goa

THE ART OF THE WILD

In the quiet of the forest
a leaf rustles the silence

Under the mist of wilderness
a breeze whispers a tune

The streams join in on percussion
The canopies conduct an orchestra

And your mind finds a rhythm in harmony with the wild

In a space that elevates your senses
you experience what it means

This is where you can be at your truest
Where the forest is at its finest

Welcome to Wildhood Nature Lodge, Goa

BEYOND GOA'S FAMILIAR SHORES

Most of Goa is known by its coastline. But travel beyond its familiar shores, past the cashew orchards and laterite villages, and the land begins to rise into the Western Ghats.

This is Mollem, a Goa of ancient forests, cool streams, and remarkable wildlife. Much of the landscape lies within the Bhagwan Mahavir Wildlife Sanctuary, Goa's oldest protected area, with Mollem National Park at its heart. Here, the forest unfolds in layers, from the canopy above to the life moving quietly across the forest floor.

YOUR HIDEAWAY IN NATURE

Six individual villas sit gently within the contours of the forest floor, their mosaic stone exteriors blending into the landscape around them.

Inside, muted earthy tones, expansive spaces, and floor-to-ceiling windows draw the forest inward, from mist-covered mornings to the last amber light filtering through the canopy at dusk.

Open patios and outdoor showers extend the experience further into the wilderness, where the sounds of cicadas and distant wildlife become part of everyday life.

A SPACE TO IMMERSE YOUR SENSES

There is a rare pleasure in bathing amidst the forest where cool waters, open skies, and the sounds of nature are all around. Here, water flows gently over natural stone before gathering into a tranquil, clear expanse, framed by the forest on every side.

By midday, the setting becomes an intimate dining space, with tables laid beside the water, beneath the canopy. Enjoy a leisurely lunch accompanied by the gentle murmur of cascading water.

A ROOM FOR GROWTH

If the forest fascinates you, dive deeper into its secrets and its stories in our Interpretation Room. Every evening, our resident naturalist will take you through the inner workings of the delicate ecosystem.

Hear tales of the forest from someone who knows it intimately.
Each session brings the forest into closer focus, revealing the intricate connections that shape its living world.

JUNGLE HIDEOUT

Tucked within the surrounding wilderness, our secluded hideouts offer a rare opportunity to observe wildlife in its most natural, undisturbed state.

The rustle of leaves, distant bird calls, and unexpected movements through the canopy become part of the experience as you sit immersed within the forest. This is perfect for nature lovers, birders, and wildlife photographers alike.

THE WORLD ON YOUR PLATE

Discover flavours from around the world served in the heart of the forest. Wildhood Nature Lodge, Goa, offers an expansive global dining experience where the kitchen moves effortlessly between Goan classics, international favourites, and coastal grills.

Choose to dine on the patio, with cool breeze for company or savour your meal in our dining area with stunning views of the forest. You are always welcome to raise a glass to the occasion with your favourite drink, served to perfection.

THE ART OF REJUVENATING

Feel yourself truly unwind with a selection of restorative Ayurvedic therapies available at the stay. Rooted in centuries-old healing traditions, each treatment combines warm herbal oils, skilled hands, and time-honoured techniques to ease tired muscles and restore a sense of balance.

Beyond the treatment room, 500 acres of forest become part of the experience. The air is cooler. The sounds are softer. And slowing down feels less like a choice and more like the natural way to be.
