KURSEONG, DARJEELING | WEST BENGAL

THE LIVING LEGACY OF HIMALAYAN TEA STORIES

FOR THE LOVE OF QUIET HILLS AND SLOWER DAYS

Singell Tea Estate is an immersion in time, terrain, and tea, crafted for those who seek a living estate experience. Here, stories unfold over rare brews by the fire and along mist-laced trails beneath ancient pines, offering a quiet return to nature, people, and a slower way of life.

A SCENIC HIDEAWAY HIGH ABOVE THE CLOUDS

Perched 4,864 ft up in the heart of Kurseong, our 150-year-old Badha Saheb's bungalow sits within the legendary Singell Tea Estate, one of Darjeeling's oldest and most revered organic tea gardens, with charming views of the Himalayan ranges.

On the estate, the earth is tended with quiet reverence through organic and biodynamic practices, to produce some of the world's finest hand-plucked teas, carrying the elusive whisper of muscatel and the lightness of mountain air.

Step into this living landscape and experience signature moments like a guided tea tasting event with estate experts, a walk through a tea factory at dawn, and reliving estate stories with a close circle of senior workers.

Every step is a story of passion, of hands that know the land, and of a craft passed gently through generations, since Singell Tea Estate was established in 1871.

AN ARCHITECTURAL JOURNEY THROUGH HIMALAYAN TRANQUILLITY

The bungalow offers a quaint stay, enriched with century-old architectural details, high ceilings, wooden floors, and preserved heritage furniture. At its heart, the living room and reception flow as one, creating a sense of quiet continuity. Outside, a brick amphitheatre and serene sit-out open to the mountains, inviting quiet pause and reflection.

LOSE YOURSELF IN MIST, PINES, AND PEACE

Within the estate, a collection of thoughtfully curated experiences invite you to reconnect with nature, culture, and self. Among them is our signature Singell Tea Experience — a guided journey through the estate, its factory, tea tasting sessions, and discovering the remarkable revival story of one of Darjeeling's most iconic tea gardens.

A scenic view of a river flowing through a rocky landscape. The river is surrounded by lush greenery and mountains in the background. The water is clear and flows over large, smooth rocks. The sky is hazy, and the overall atmosphere is peaceful and natural.

Beyond the estate, guests can visit Senchal Wildlife Sanctuary, go on a river adventure and picnic to Balasan River, try birdwatching at Latpanchar, and set out to the many other iconic scenic viewpoints, heritage schools, and village markets there is to discover.

CUISINE THAT'S ROOTED IN PLACE

Cuisine here is local, and honest, drawing from Tibetan, Nepali, Bengali, and British influences, reimagined through CGH Earth's soulful, sustainable lens. From bonfires and barbecues under the Himalayan sky to an elegant High Tea with the estate's finest brews, every meal is steeped in place and story.
